VOLUME II NUMBER XX MAY 27, 1946

EXCITEMENT REIGNS AS SEMESTER ENDS, VACATION DRAWS NEAR

With the approach of summer and vacation, comes the thought of what will be doing during those precious three months. However, exams and the usual rush at the end of the semester have kept everyone from thinking too seriously on the subject. "I guess I'll get a job someplace," as stated by Joan Wallach is symbolic of many when the coming vacation is mentioned. Carol Hamann, Sally Jackson, Betty Podolske, and Nancy Bump join the ranks of those who plan on working this summer but have not decided in what capacity.

Margie MacMichael, Jeanne Albrecht, Shirley Vogt, Betty Jay, Martha Rankin and June Dolge are some of the more fortunate ones who have their summer plans already outlined. They intend to spend their time in the city doing recreational work at the numerous Milwaukee playgrounds. They applied for their jobs through the Board of Education and will be placed at specific playgrounds shortly.

Another type of recreational work will be carried out by those who will carry the duties of camp counselors. Marion Chesbrough will counsel at a Campfire girls' camp in Minnesota and Merle Epstein will also spend her summer in Minnesota at a girls' camp. Liz Black will busy herself in Columbus, Ohio, at a Girl Scout Day Camp, while Florence Arakawa will spend her time working at Camp Alice Chester at Booth Lake, Wisconsin.

Phil Young intends to go back to her beloved Camp Wawbeek this summer where she will be in charge of the Craft Shop. Dee Froemming intends to go up to the Dells with Phil to work with the handicapped vacationists.

In contrast to those who have a vague idea of working are those who have definitely decided to loaf and generally take life easy. Joan Taxay emphatically states that she plans to do nothing this summer. Lee Paulson tells of months at the Detroit Lakes with George-Ann Donald. Lois Vogl will come under the heading of a non-worker, but every minute of her time will be spent in preparation for her marriage in August. Ellie

Fenton is likewise thinking of the coming season in terms of a similar event

This summer school work will occupy the thoughts of Betty Palmer, Carol Christoffel, and Jean Ebling. Ruth Rockstein will be working at the County Children's Home. Perhaps it is her love for music that has led Eileen Weir to take a job at the Wangerin Organ Company.

Other MDC students have many unique and interesting jobs in mind. Throughout the states, Downer girls will be spending the summer working and playing, and rejoicing with their returned veterans.

AA LOOKS TO THE FUTURE

The speedy races...The class colors and songs...The Freshman crew holding their oars to present to the All-College team...Miss Heimbach's presentation of the miniture oar, with all its brightly colored ribbons, to the best coordinated team...Sun-burned rooters on the bank...These and many more will combine Saturday to climax the Athletic Association's activities of the year in Regatta!

"Next year's board," says Janet Bee, president, "hopes that the student body will take an even more active part in the athletic activities of the college, so that they can plan an even fuller program of fun for the participants of every sport.

Including the president, four members of this year's board will remain on the board next year.

Beryl Webb will continue her leadership as riding manager. This year's treasurer, Betty Fass, will take over basketball next year. Rowing manager this year, Pat Schaper, will continue her board activities next year as vice-president.

Phyllis Young will succeed Bernie Larson as head of archery. Ann Needham, replacing Betty Panella, will be bowling manager. Two-year winner of the meet, Dottie Chamberlain, will relieve Toni Hausmann of her responsibility as head of swimming. Next years hiking manager, Janice Matthews, is taking over Merle Epstein's position on the board. Mary Ann Pfeifer, this year's hockey manager will be replaced by Liz Levy. Pat Vogel will plan next year's regatta as Pat Schaper has done this year. Softball will be represented on the board for the first time, with Eileen Weir as its manager.

"The board is a representative group," says Miss Heimbach, "and should be able to initiate many new activities hitherto not organized by the Association."

"Join in the fun next year," urges Janet Bee. "We want an athletic club of which Downer will be proud."

COUNCIL PICKS NEW PRESIDENT

Taking over Catherine Powers' position as head of the Religious Council will be Delores Froeming. Dee served on the Council this year and is looking forward to the leadership of it next year.

"Swing Out! Swing Out!

'46 swings out.

Oh, we're the class with no hat girl,

As '46 swings out."

On the 28th day of May, the red class of '46 will read their last will and testament to all those they leave behind. Time? 12:30.....Place? Chapel.....

Ending the year on a right note will be Dorothy Brach, Marge Fischer, Gladys Guenther, and Eileen Weir. Their farwell message will be the organ concert they will present in Chapel on May 29th at 7:30 PM

INDIA DESTINATION

OF FACULTY MEMBER

It seems that our faculty members have been possessed with the wander-lust. The latest to leave our campus to serve elsewhere temporarily will be Miss Eby who has been granted a year's leave of absence during which time she will substitute in philosophy at the Women's Christian College in Madras, India.

70% of the students at the college are Christian, the remaining being composed of Hindus and Moslems, and the majority of the faculty are Indian.

Miss Eby is eagerly awaiting the time of her departure which will be some time this summer. She will fly from the East coast to Africa and from there to India.

Downer extends to Miss Eby wishes for a pleasant, interesting year.
